

Here Comes the New Year and New Opportunities for You—

In order to gain employment or enter college, you need to have a thoughtful career plan, even if you don't have a final occupation or degree selected. Learn the ins and outs of professionally searching for a job and career with the Youth Workforce Professional Development Series. Once you complete this series, you will earn two Clark College credits, incentives, have a great cover letter and resume, have a more focused approach on job searching, know how to present yourself and know what careers are best suited to you. The class is held on Mondays and Wednesdays.

Date: January 23—February 13, 2012    Time: 3:30—6:00 p.m.    Location: ESD 112—2200 Building

If you are interested in attending college, help is available with the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA is the single-most important application for financial aid and nearly every Workforce student is eligible to get financial aid once the FAFSA is completed. Family and friends are welcome. Dinner is included.

Date: Thursday, January 26, 2012    Time: 6:15—7:30 p.m.

Location: ESD 112—2200 Building

If you can't attend our class, attend College Goal Sunday at WSUV. This is a free workshop to help you and your family with the FAFSA and get financial aid questions answered. For more information, go to the website at www.collegegoalsundaywa.org

Date: Sunday, January 22, 2012    Time: 1:00 p.m.—5:00 p.m.

Our Microsoft Office PowerPoint class will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays for eight weeks. You can earn three Clark College credits and a weekly attendance incentive. Pass the Microsoft PowerPoint certification exam and you will have an internationally-recognized credential.

Date: January 31—March 15, 2012    Time: 3:30—6:00 p.m.

Location: ESD 112— 2200 Building/Tech Bus
