

Board Officers and Duties of Board Members

President and Vice President

The President shall preside at all meetings and shall exercise such other powers as properly appertain to this office or as may be delegated to him/her by the Board or by statute.

The President may, with the approval of the Board, appoint such special committees from time to time as may be required. These committees shall cease to exist upon the acceptance of their reports or upon their formal discharge.

The President shall sign any official documents or papers relating to the ESD or its programs which may require the signature of the Board President.

The Vice President shall act as President in the absence of the President.

In the absence of both the President and the Vice President, another Board member, elected by those Board members present, shall serve as President pro tem.
