KEYNOTE SPEAKER: SCOTT JOHNSON

Practice like your life depends on it

Scott Johnson is the Emergency Management Division Manager for the Clark Regional Emergency Service Agency, which encompasses Clark County and its seven cities. Scott has been featured in the Columbian, Clark County Today, and other local publications for his presentations on emergency preparedness, with particular focus on the forecasted Cascadia Subduction Zone earthquake. Scott's goal is to empower people to prepare for emergencies, creating a level of community resilience in the face of disaster.
